(Provide a general summary on the extent in implementation of recommendations from the accreditation process).

Introduction

(Provide 1-2 paragraphs about the process of post-accreditation).

For the purpose of this post-accreditation evaluation of the LLM in Advance European Studies, Faculty of Law, University of Pristina "Hasan Pristina" KAA provided to the expert Institution's Documentation, the Self Improvement Report, Expert Team Report and KAA Extraordinary Monitoring Report. Having in mind the fact that KAA provide the expert with Extraordinary Monitoring Report it should be bear in mind that based on the Law no. 08/L-110 on Kosovo Accreditation Agency, article 42 on Monitoring, on the Manual for Monitoring Methodology and Post Accreditation Procedures Article 1.9 extraordinary monitoring paragraph 1.9.1. KAA may accept at any time complaints submitted by individuals or organizations, which indicate a decline in the quality of higher education institutions and/or their study programs. Extraordinary monitoring occurred of 10 June 2024. According to Manual for Monitoring Methodology and Post Accreditation Procedures it is in the jurisdiction of the SQC to proceed further after Extraordinary monitoring report (Article 1.9, Paragraphs 1.9.1. – 1.9.10.) Under the article 1.9.9 i f, even after the additional deadline, the institution fails to submit relevant evidence for the improvement of the situation, the SQC proceeds with the initiation of an early accreditation visit at the institutional level and/or at the level of the study program.

In this post-accreditation procedure expert was engaged by KAA in the post-accreditation procedure not as a part of early accreditation visit resolving from extraordinary monitoring report. According to the Article 2.4.6 Manual for Monitoring Methodology and Post Accreditation Procedures the international accreditation expert drafts a written report according to the template applied by the KAA in which he will confirm the degree of fulfillment of the recommendations by the relevant institution. After careful consideration of all relevant document and Manual for Monitoring Methodology and Post Accreditation Procedures, in this report the degree of fulfillment of the recommendations by the relevant institution will be addressed.

Self-improvement report for LLM in Advance European Studies, Faculty of Law, University of Pristina "Hasan Pristina" encompasses two Annexes (Recommendations, actions, responsible structure and staff, evidence and Implementation plan for recommendations pertaining to the program (2024-2028) in total 36 pages. It is important to emphasize that accreditation processes in Kosovo are currently primarily focused on the programme level. As a result, programme accreditation standards encompass various institutional elements, leading to accreditation recommendations that often address institutional processes—areas where programme management has limited authority to effect direct changes. Out of the 33 recommendations, 5 recommendations can be considered the responsibility of the university, others can be considered responsibility of faculty or department. It remains unclear after the visit whether the responsibility for the self-improvement plan lies with the department, the faculty administration or both, as well as how the responsibilities for implementing specific recommendations are distributed within the faculty.
